

CATARRH DESTROYED MY APPETITE.

PERUNA rarely fails to restore the appetite. Immediately upon beginning the use of Peruna patients begin to eat and digest. This is the universal testimony, coming from all parts of the civilized world.

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of loss of appetite and disturbed digestion. The beneficial influence of Peruna on catarrh completely restores the appetite in such cases.

To prod the digestive organs with medicines that are merely stimulants is a poor way to remedy such cases.

"I am now cured and cheerful in spirits, all through the agency of Peruna, which has cured me effectively and restored my appetite."

"My only regret is that I did not use Peruna sooner and I would have avoided all my previous suffering and misery."

—Mr. Joseph H. Conlan.

Removed Catarrh, Restored Appetite.

Mr. Joseph H. Conlan, 487 7th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I suffered from catarrh which completely destroyed my appetite and weakened my entire system."

"I am now cured and cheerful in spirits, all through the agency of Peruna, which has cured me effectively and restored my appetite. My only regret is that I did not use Peruna sooner and I would have avoided all my previous suffering and misery."

Torpid Liver, Stomach Trouble.

Mr. James O'Byrne, 626 Madison St., Topeka, Kas., conductor Santa Fe Railway and member Order of Railroad Conductors, writes:

"I suffered with a torpid liver and stomach trouble, which made my complexion very sallow, and I felt miserable and tired all the time."

"An aunt wrote me that she was taking Peruna with such good results that she advised me to try it, and I finally bought a bottle, although I disliked to take patent medicines."

"However, I found Peruna very agreeable to take, and effective, as I felt better in a week. I took only five bottles in all and I found that was all I needed."

"I am most grateful to you for what your medicine has done for me."

Dysentery Entirely Relieved.

Mr. W. N. Casey, Leamington, Ill., writes:

"In two weeks after beginning your treatment I was well. I used nine bottles of Peruna. My case was bowel trouble or dysentery. "I also tried Peruna for a cough, according to directions, and it exceeded my cough syrup I ever used."

"I wish every one afflicted would give Peruna a trial."

Peruna is a Tonic.

Capt. R. B. Smith, Greensboro, Ga., writes:

"After using several bottles of Peruna I can recommend it as one of the best catarrh medicines on the market. As a tonic it has not equal."

"Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

Catarrh of Stomach.

Mr. Henry Neely, First Lieutenant, Co. "F," 86th Regt., O. V. I., Box 623, Trenton, Mo., writes: "I suffered for years with catarrh of the stomach. Seeing an advertisement of Peruna, I bought a bottle and every dose made me feel better. Seven bottles cured me completely."

CHARITY BALL.

Congress Dancing Academy, made doubly attractive Thanksgiving eve by its appropriate Thanksgiving decorations, was the scene of the annual charity ball given under the auspices of the Martha society. Pumpkin vines with their gorgeous yellow blossoms were festooned about the walls, with tastefully placed bunches of corn stalks or yellow pumpkins adding to the effectiveness of the color scheme, large yellow shades and graceful clusters of the pumpkin blossoms adorned the doorways and arches, and above the heads of the musicians at the east end of the ball room hung baskets of purple grapes and festoons of grape vines draped with riotous colorings by the autumn frosts, potted ferns forming an effective screen in the foreground of the orchestra platform.

The 1910 Charity Ball proved to be one of the most successful and thoroughly enjoyable affairs ever given by the Martha society, so well known for its social achievements.

Governor Spry and staff and many of the most prominent and philanthropic people of Weber county and the state were present and many compliments were showered upon the ladies for the cordial reception accorded and the success and exceptional pleasure of the occasion.

Splendid musical numbers were rendered by Foster's orchestra of ten pieces and delicious punch and refreshments in two courses were served in the reception room, where the following hostesses, with Mr. C. C. Huffer assisting, were in charge:

Mrs. William Eccles, Mrs. G. L. Becker, Mrs. P. Healy and Mrs. L. L. Reynolds. This committee, with the decoration committee, Mrs. Joseph Scottcroft, Mrs. H. C. Wood, Mrs. Ezra Rich, Mrs. Maude Porter and Mrs. E. W. Matson, together with Mrs. E. A. Littlefield and Mrs. J. H. Spargo, who met the guests at the door, the gracious president, Mrs. H. H. Spencer and the entire membership who served as a committee of the whole, left nothing more in detail, pleasure or comfort to be desired.

Each and every member of the society worked with unremitting zeal for the success of this affair and to each is equal credit given for the pronounced success of the 1910 ball. The ladies of the society are: Mrs. H. H. Spencer, president; Mrs. Abe Kuhn, first vice president; Mrs. J. S. Lewis, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Porter, secretary; Mrs. E. M. Conroy, treasurer; the other members, Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, Mrs. R. T. Hume, Mrs. William Eccles, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. William Glasman, Mrs. G. L. Becker, Mrs. M. S. Browning, Mrs. Joe Scottcroft, Mrs. Ezra Rich, Mrs. J. H. Spargo, Mrs. E. W. Matson, Mrs. L. L. Reynolds, Mrs. Neta Eccles, Mrs. Judge Dee, Mrs. Maude Porter, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. P. Healy, Mrs. A. S. Condon, Mrs. E. A. Littlefield, Mrs. A. P. Bigelow, Mrs. H. C. Bigelow, Mrs. Harold Sperry, Mrs. Ad Kuhn, Mrs. F. J. Kiesel, Mrs. H. C. Wood.

The members of the society express their sincere appreciation to all patrons, and especial mention was made of the assistance, courtesies and valuable advice of several citizens and of the courtesies extended by the Standard.

Governor Spry and Mrs. H. H. Spencer, president of the Martha society, led the grand march, followed by Mayor William Glasman and Mrs. Spry. Behind these two couples marched the governor's staff, composed of General and Mrs. Wedgewood, Colonel and Mrs. Booth, Colonel and Mrs. Lund, Colonel and Mrs. Kessler, Colonel and Mrs. Badger, Colonel and Mrs. Daynes, Miss Alice Spry, Miss Booth, Miss Lund and Miss Wright of Salt Lake.

Among the bewildering numbers noted were Mrs. Wedgewood, Colonel and Mrs. Booth, Colonel and Mrs. Lund, Colonel and Mrs. Kessler, Colonel and Mrs. Badger, Colonel and Mrs. Daynes, Miss Alice Spry, Miss Booth, Miss Lund and Miss Wright of Salt Lake.

Beautiful gowns, elaborate creations of the dressmaker's art, jewels and flowers combined with gold, silver and jewels, Persian embroideries, such as have obtained, made a picture of striking elegance. The beautiful shades of roses, pink, blue, apricot, wisteria, yellow and green were in evidence to make up the rainbow effect—many veiled in embroidered marquisette and chiffon.

BUSINESS COLLEGE DANCE.

The beautiful hall of the Royal Dancing Academy was crowded to its most capacity at the grand Thanksgiving ball given by the Ogden Business College on Thursday night.

This was the second ball given by the stenographers and bookkeepers of the college who are proving themselves royal entertainers in the dance line which was evidenced by one of the largest crowds that has assembled together in the halls of the Royal Academy for "many moons," there being more than two hundred couples on the floor at one time.

The orchestra, assembled by the college spirit that was manifest throughout the entire throng of jolly young dancers, rendered some delightful selections which proved pleasing to all present. The programme, which was very neatly gotten up, consisted of twenty-two splendid numbers.

From nearly all sides and corners of the hall could be seen hanging, beautiful pennants and banners representing colleges and high schools in nearly every state of the United States from which the students have been former graduates.

The committees having this ball in charge are to be congratulated upon the success attained from their unceasing efforts to make this affair one which all the participants only answered, "They had had the time of their lives."

The committees in charge were: Arrangement and reception—Kyle Trousdale, J. W. Griswold, Marie Wetherdale, Marguerite Hewitt.

Floor—Kyle Trousdale, E. Gay Vaughan, J. W. Griswold and H. Lee Bradford.

Door—Lloyd C. Beebe, Arthur Stratton.

PROGRAM AT SACRED HEART.

The real, genuine Thanksgiving spirit, always so noticeable at Sacred Heart academy, was no less conspicuous this November, and resulted in the usual Thanksgiving entertainment, which performances have delighted so many in former years.

On Wednesday afternoon the class of 1911 made their initial bow in the literary and musical world before the Rev. Father Ryan, a few interested relatives and appreciative friends.

The stage decorations, though simple in detail, were artistic and original, consisting of red, white and blue flags and beautiful bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, from the chandelier to the corners of the table were festoons of evergreen ferns and snail, and the cut glass, fine china, silvery and snowy napery, together with the loads of Thanksgiving dainties and the time-honored turkey, combined in making a truly pleasant scene. Around this attractive board were seated Patriarch George W. Larkin and Mrs. Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Browne, Mrs. Hammond of Decatur, Mich., Miss Jean Benzle, Miss Zina Larkin, Miss Ellen Larkin and Miss Josephine Larkin, Miss Bernice Brown, Leslie Patterson, Jack Williams and Lyles Larkin.

Music, games and a general good time were enjoyed until the midnight hour marked the closing of one more happy Thanksgiving with the Larkin family.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.

Mrs. H. B. Cardon gave a Thanksgiving dinner at her home on Washington avenue, to which relatives and a few friends were summoned. The affair was also a surprise birthday party to one of the guests, J. D. McLean of Sydney, Australia. The dinner was a real Thanksgiving menu, all of the delicacies of the season being served and enjoyed to the utmost by all present. Flowers and assorted candies in toy turkeys adorned the table, which groined under its load of good things.

The after dinner hours were spent in playing high five, Mrs. Cardon and Mr. A. Anderson taking the high scores.

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED.

The Madison kindergarten entertained the Quincey kindergarten at the Madison school Wednesday afternoon. The children have been studying about the farmer and his work. They had dramatized the different activities of the farmer and had ground wheat into flour and made bread. They also had churned butter.

In keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit they wished to share their bread and butter with others, so they invited the Quincey kindergarten.

Miss Marion A. Bishop is the director and Edna Staley is the assistant.

TOLSTOI CIRCLE.

The Tolstoi Circle met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Idella Farrel. A good attendance of members were present.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Clancy Scotch quotations and history were the studies for the day. "Something Deep," and M. B. H. Miller continued with the life of Mary Stuart. Mrs. Alice Edwards gave a paper on "Sir Walter Scott" and Mrs. Annie Edwards the timely topic, "Thanksgiving."

Luncheon was served after which Mrs. D. R. Johnstone and little daughter entertained the company with music and singing. Mrs. Howe will entertain the circle at its next meeting, December 5, at her apartments in the Perry building.

MANILA MERRY WORKERS.

The Manila Merry Worker held their last meeting with Mrs. Jane Walters. Following the business session and the sewing of a delicate social hour was spent and delicious refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. L. A. Hurst at her home, 472 Twenty-first street, on November 30.

FREITAG CLUB.

Mrs. Jed Ballantyne was hostess to the Freitag Club at their last meeting. The parlors and dining room were beautifully decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season, and tempting refreshments were served after following.

Mrs. Carl Rasmussen was received as a member of the club.

Miss Kathryn Fitzgerald and her guest, Miss Grace Sullivan, went to Salt Lake yesterday.

ENTERTAINED GOVERNOR.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Browning entertained Governor and Mrs. Spry, the members of the governor's staff with their wives and daughters and other guests, about thirty in all, at dinner at the Weber club, on Thanksgiving eve, the entire party participating later in gratulation on their golden anniversary.

The committee responsible for the success and enjoyment of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Kastus, Mr. and Mrs. I. Sander, Mrs. Cora Miller, the Misses Maggie and Charlotte Sander.

DINNER PARTY.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Larkin, 466 Twenty-fourth street, a family dinner party was given Thursday. The parlors were made additionally attractive with pink and white carnations and ferns, and the dining room was a delight to the eye with a profusion of pink and yellow chrysanthemums. From the chandelier to the corners of the table were festoons of evergreen ferns and snail, and the cut glass, fine china, silvery and snowy napery, together with the loads of Thanksgiving dainties and the time-honored turkey, combined in making a truly pleasant scene. Around this attractive board were seated Patriarch George W. Larkin and Mrs. Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Browne, Mrs. Hammond of Decatur, Mich., Miss Jean Benzle, Miss Zina Larkin, Miss Ellen Larkin and Miss Josephine Larkin, Miss Bernice Brown, Leslie Patterson, Jack Williams and Lyles Larkin.

Music, games and a general good time were enjoyed until the midnight hour marked the closing of one more happy Thanksgiving with the Larkin family.
